COMMENTARY

The Trust returned -1.9% in February, driven by negative FX returns resulting from a strengthening AUD:USD exchange rate. FX losses were partly offset by the receipt of valuations relating to one of our secondary transactions. We note that over the last two months, the Trust has not received updated quarterly valuations for most of the portfolio and that these updates will therefore likely be captured in the near future.

Over the month we have received a number of distributions from underlying funds and have been continuing with our investment activities.

Two exciting new investments illustrate the diversification of our portfolio across both cutting edge and established businesses:

- A preferred equity investment in Lacework, a California-based software platform that offers security solutions for customers' cloud computing environments. Cybersecurity for cloud environments is a large total addressable market that continues to grow at a compound annual growth rate of 24%. We believe Lacework offers a differentiated product due to its automated, data-driven approach and comprehensive coverage of major cloud environments.
- Closing a secondary transaction in Avita Pharmacy organised by Kinderhook Industries. Avita is a leading US pharmacy services platform that operates standalone community pharmacies as well as integrated on-site pharmacies and central-fill pharmacy solutions that are integrated with US state and federally funded clinics. The company has low capital expenditure requirements and features a stable base of recurring revenues with over 98% customer retention. We believe the manager has multiple avenues to create value in Avita, including through better pricing, increasing customer demand, expanding into adjacent areas like therapeutics and hospitals, and completing small, accretive M&A transactions.

During the month, we also finalised a US$12 million commitment to GCM Grosvenor Strategic Credit Fund II which will seek to leverage GCM Grosvenor's US$70 billion global alternatives platform to source difficult-to-access credit transactions from a premier suite of GPs.

INVESTMENT ACTIVITY – SELECTED HIGHLIGHTS<sup>5</sup>

OPPORTUNISTIC INVESTMENTS

Last month GCM Grosvenor Multi-Asset Class Fund III (“MAC III”) completed a preferred equity investment alongside D1 Capital in Lacework, a California-based software platform that offers security solutions for customers’ cloud computing environments. The software integrates several functions, often replacing two to four other security software solutions including anomaly detection, integrity monitoring, and threat defense. In addition, Lacework’s automation requires less human response compared to legacy security software, reducing alert investigation time by 90% or more and improving threat defense with faster response.

Cybersecurity for cloud environments is a large total addressable market that continues to grow at a compound annual growth rate of 24%. We believe Lacework offers a differentiated product due to its automated, data-driven approach and comprehensive coverage of major cloud environments, including Amazon Web Services, Google Cloud, and Microsoft Azure. The company is led by an experienced management team and top technology sponsors including Sutter Hill Ventures, whose founder previously created and incubated Snowflake and Pure Storage.

SECONDARY TRANSACTIONS

GCM Grosvenor Secondary Opportunities Fund III (“GSF III”) is in the process of closing Project Matrix, a transaction organised by Kinderhook Industries (“Kinderhook”) to continue to operate and grow Avita Pharmacy (“Avita”) in order to capture further value creation. Avita is a leading US pharmacy services platform that operates standalone community pharmacies as well as integrated on-site pharmacies and central-fill pharmacy solutions that are integrated with US state and federally funded clinics. Kinderhook has deep expertise in the government-pay and pharmacy services niches of the healthcare sector and has been managing Avita since 2019.

The company has low capital expenditure requirements and features a stable base of recurring revenues with over 98% customer retention. We believe the manager has multiple avenues to create value in Avita, including through better pricing, increasing customer demand in order to help grow new and existing customer sales, executing on opportunities to expand into adjacent areas like therapeutics and hospitals, and completing small, accretive M&A transactions. Both Kinderhook and the existing management team are strongly aligned and are rolling substantially all of their proceeds into the transaction.

1. The NAV is unaudited.
2. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance, the value of investments can go up and down. The net return has been determined with reference to the increase in the Net Asset Value per Unit, as well as of the reinvestment of a Unit's distribution back into the Trust pursuant to the Trust's distribution reinvestment plan ("DRP"). Pengana has established a DRP in respect of distributions made by the Trust. Under the DRP, Unitholders may elect to have all or part of their distribution reinvested in additional Units.
3. The NAV per unit at inception is based on the subscription price per unit which is equal to $1.25.
4. From 1 July 2020, Pengana intends to target a cash distribution yield equal to 4% p.a. (prorated on a non-compounded basis) of the NAV (excluding the total value of the Alignment Shares but including the cash distribution amount payable) as at the end of the period that a distribution relates to. The targeted distribution is only a target and may not be achieved. Investors should read the Risks summary set out in Section 11 of the IPO PDS.
