SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

1 PURPOSE

Pengana Investment Management Limited ('Responsible Entity', or 'PIML') is the responsible entity for the Pengana Private Equity Trust (ASX: PE1) ('Trust' or 'PE1'), a registered managed investment scheme that is listed on the Australian Securities Exchange ('ASX').

The Responsible Entity is a wholly owned subsidiary of Pengana Capital Group Limited (ASX: PCG) ('Pengana' or 'PCG'). PIML is the holder of an Australian Financial Securities Licence (AFSL Licence: 219 462) ('AFSL'). Pengana Capital Limited ('Manager' or 'PCL') is the manager of PE1 and is a wholly owned subsidiary of PCG. The Manager has engaged Grosvenor Capital Management, L.P. ('GCM' or 'Investment Manager') as the investment manager of PE1 pursuant to the Investment Management Agreement.

This policy aims to ensure that personal trading in PE1 securities is conducted lawfully and appropriately and that legal, regulatory and reputational risk to Pengana, its directors and employees is minimised.

Expressions in bold are defined in Section 9 of this policy.

2 SCOPE

This policy applies to each of the directors of PIML, PCL and PCG and all their employees (including key management personnel as defined in the ASX listing rules) when trading in PE1 securities in a personal capacity. This will include situations where the director or employee exercises control over the investment decision of another person, legal entity or structure.

Any references to a director in this policy will be interpreted as including a reference to the directors of PIML, PCL or PCG. Any reference to an employee in this policy will be interpreted as including a reference to an employee of PIML, PCL or PCG.

All temporary staff and contractors of PIML, PCL and PCG, regardless of the period of their engagement, are also required to comply with this policy as it applies to PIML, PCL and PCG employees generally.

The ultimate responsibility for adherence to this policy and any other rules governing securities trading lies with the individual.

3 POLICY

3.1 Prohibition on insider trading

Directors and employees must not trade in PE1 securities when they are in possession of inside information. This prohibition applies even if there is no trading blackout in existence and / or the director or employee has been given approval to trade.

3.2 Prohibition on procuring or encouraging third parties to trade

Directors and employees must not:

- procure a third party to trade in PE1 securities on their behalf which could result in circumventing the application of this policy; or
- encourage third parties to trade, if the director or employee has inside information regarding PE1 securities.

3.3 Prohibition on speculative trading, lending, short selling or trading in associated products

Directors and employees must not trade in PE1 securities for short term or speculative gain. All positions (with the exception of units acquired as the result of exercising options under incentive plans) must be held for a minimum period of one month.

Short selling or taking short positions in or lending PE1 securities is not permitted.

Entering into arrangements and/or trading in financial products issued over PE1 securities by third parties or trading in associated products which operate to limit the economic risk of holding PE1 securities is also prohibited.

3.4 Prohibition on Directors and employees taking, arranging or facilitating loans over their PE1 units

Directors and employees must not take or otherwise facilitate margin loans over their PE1 securities without prior Board approval.

3.5 Personal trading not permitted during prohibited periods

Directors and employees must not trade during Prohibited Periods, which means any period where a trading blackout applies. Further details on the procedure for trading are set out at Attachment A.

3.6 Personal trading not to adversely impact PE1's reputation, and the individual's professional reputation and ability to perform duties

Directors and employees should ensure that personal trading in PE1 securities:

- does not interfere with their responsibilities as an officer or employee; and
- is on a scale consistent with their financial capacity.

Directors and employees should be mindful of the way in which any personal trading in PE1 securities could be perceived by the market and the significant reputational damage to themselves and to PE1 that could be caused by the appearance of insider trading. If directors and employees are unsure about whether reputational damage could be caused to themselves or PE1 through particular trading activity they should discuss this with the PCG Lawyer and / or PIML Chairman.

3.7 No preferential treatment

Directors and employees may participate in new unit issues, rights issues and distribution reinvestment plans related to PE1 securities, provided that they are treated the same as other unitholders and do not obtain any advantage over other unitholders.

3.8 Pre-clearance for Directors and employees

Trading by directors is subject to pre-clearance by the PIML Chairman and Company Secretary. In addition, trading by employees is subject to pre-clearance by the PCG Operations Team. All trading in PE1 securities by directors and employees (except for Permitted Trading) is to be notified and approved in accordance with the procedures for Trading in PE1 securities before a trade is placed (Attachment A). This requirement applies even where there is no trading blackout in existence.

Pre-clearance is not required for participating in PE1 distribution reinvestment plans, rights issues, new unit issues or where securities are issued pursuant to employee incentive plans.

4 PROCEDURES

The procedures for trading in PE1 securities (Attachment A) set out the process for implementing and complying with this policy. All directors and employees must be familiar with these procedures and the personal obligations that arise from them.

5 MONITORING COMPLIANCE

An audit of trading activity may be conducted by the PCG Operations Team at any time to assess whether directors and employees are complying with the requirements of this policy.

6 CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE WITH POLICY

A breach of the insider trading laws is a serious offence that may attract both civil and criminal penalties under the Corporations Act.

Compliance with this policy is mandatory and a breach is considered to be a serious matter that will result in disciplinary action, including possible immediate dismissal.

Directors and employees must ensure that they not only comply with the letter of this policy but also the spirit, and at all times consider the risk to both PE1's and their own reputation when conducting their personal trading activities. They must not structure arrangements or procure third parties to trade to circumvent the operation of this policy.

7 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This policy is administered by the PIML Company Secretary and the PCG Lawyer. Should you have a query in relation to the policy please contact the PIML Company Secretary or PCG Lawyer.

8 REVIEW AND ASSESSMENT

The policy will be reviewed and updated from time to time to ensure that it remains relevant, current and compliant with all applicable laws, and guidance notes. Any material changes will be notified to directors, employees, contractors and all temporary staff and placed on the PE1 website.

10 ATTACHMENTS

Attachment A - Procedure – Personal Trading in PE1 securities

Attachment B - Summary of Legal Prohibition on Insider Trading

ATTACHMENT A: PROCEDURE FOR TRADING IN PE1 SECURITIES

1 TRADING BLACKOUTS

As PE1 is a listed investment trust which announces its investment updates and NTA at least monthly on the ASX, the Board believes that PE1's unitholders are generally fully informed.

PE1 permits personal trading in PE1 securities by directors and employees during periods when there is no trading blackout. However, directors and employees who trade during these periods still have a legal obligation to satisfy themselves that they are not in possession of inside information.

REMEMBER: Whenever a person is in possession of inside information, trading is prohibited - even during periods where there is no trading blackout.

Trading blackouts applying to all Directors and employees

- a. the period beginning five business days prior to the date:
 - i. PE1's half year and full year results are scheduled to be released to the ASX; and
 - ii. PE1 announces a distribution or other capital management initiative that may have a material impact on the price of the Trust's ordinary units,and ending at the commencement of trading on the first trading day after such release or announcement; and
- b. any other period determined by the Board.

Trading blackout periods may be subject to change. The exact timing of the periods will depend on the date of the ASX announcement. Directors and employees are required to ensure that there is no trading blackout in existence and to obtain pre-trade approval prior to notifying or placing a personal trade in PE1 securities.

The open and close of trading blackout periods will be advised to all directors and employees by email, by PIML's Company Secretary or PCG Lawyer. A trading blackout period may be declared for all or particular directors and employees, at any time where this is necessary to manage a potential insider trading risk, or the appearance of insider trading, as detailed in Section 3 of these Procedures.

Directors and employees subject to this policy are required to familiarise themselves with the timing of the trading blackout periods and are responsible for ensuring their compliance.

Trades must be executed by the close of the ASX before the trading blackout applies. Settlement may occur afterwards.

2 PRE-CLEARANCE PROCEDURE FOR DIRECTORS AND EMPLOYEES

2.1 Notification of intention to trade

Directors are to provide email notification of intended trading (except for any Permitted Trading) to PE1's Chairman and Company Secretary (copy in the PCG Lawyer).

Employees (other than directors) are to provide email notification of intended trading (except for any Permitted Trading) to PCG's Operations Team.

Notification of an intended trade must be given in writing and may be provided by email or memorandum. The following information regarding the PE1 securities to be traded must be included in the communication:

- type of PE1 security, e.g. ordinary units, options;
- number of PE1 securities;
- whether the trade is a sale or purchase;
- name of person/entity intending to trade;
- how long the trade is expected to take.

There is no requirement to obtain pre-clearance in respect of any Permitted Trading.

2.2 Approval of trades

The PIML Chairman and the Company Secretary are both required to approve the proposed trades by directors, except for Permitted Trading.

In the absence of the PIML Chairman, the PCG Chief Executive Officer is required to approve the proposed trade or in their absence, any other director may approve the proposed trade (apart from the director wanting to trade).

In the absence of the PIML Company Secretary, the PCG Lawyer is required to approve the proposed trade.

In the event that the Chairman wants to trade PE1 securities the trade must be approved by the PIML Company Secretary (or in their absence, the PCG Lawyer) and the PCG Chief Executive Officer or, in their absence, any other director.

Employees (other than directors) are required to have their trades approved by the PCG Operations Team except for Permitted Trading and should use the "Staff Pre-Trade Advice Form". The PCG Operations Team will advise the PIML Company Secretary of any requests for pre-trade approval in respect of PE1 securities before the trades are approved.

Requests to trade will be considered as soon as possible, in order of receipt. It is the responsibility of the director or employee to follow-up a response to their request to trade with the PIML Company Secretary or the PCG Operations Team as relevant. The PIML Company Secretary and the PCG Operations Team will maintain a record of all written approvals or denials to trade.

Approvals to trade will be valid for five business days following the day on which approval was granted. Approval to trade is not an endorsement of the proposed trade and director and employees are responsible for their compliance with insider trading laws. Provided the trade is made within the five business days, settlement may occur afterwards.

Directors must provide the PIML Company Secretary with a copy of the broker's trade confirmation immediately once the trade has been executed so that the PIML Company Secretary can attend to the required ASX notifications.

Approvals may be withdrawn, varied or the period of approval shortened where:

- the power of veto has been exercised and communicated to the director or employee in accordance with Section 3 of these procedures;

- approval is granted within five business days of a trading blackout coming into effect, in which case the approval will expire once the trading blackout comes into effect.

Approval to trade may be denied at the absolute discretion of the persons charged with approving the trade. The persons approving the trade may consider any reasons they consider appropriate, including the appearance of insider trading and the significant reputational damage that may cause PE1 and the director or employee.

The director or employee is not entitled to receive any reasons for why the trade is denied. If approval is denied, the director or employee must keep that information confidential and not disclose it to anyone.

Where approval to trade is denied, or the approval period has expired, the director or employee may reapply. If a director or employee wants to reapply, it is their responsibility to make further requests to trade until such time as a trade is permitted.

3 POWER OF VETO

Despite the fact that a trading blackout is not in existence, or that an individual director or employee has been given approval for an intended trade, it may be necessary to veto trading for legal or perception reasons. The veto may apply to an individual, group, division or all directors or employees.

The power of veto is reserved to the Chairman and any other director. Acting jointly the Chairman and any other director can:

- overturn any approval to a director or employee to trade; or
- declare a trading blackout period without prior notice.

This power of veto may be exercised where a matter has arisen which renders it inappropriate for personal trading in PE1 securities to be conducted by an individual, group, division or all directors and employees. This may occur in the following situations:

- considerable trading has occurred in PE1 securities at a significant discount to NTA;
- a takeover or merger approach is made;
- other significant corporate actions.

Where the Chairman is not available, or the veto involves the Chairman personally (e.g. overturning the Chairman's approval to trade) the veto decision should be considered by the Chair of the Audit Committee and any other director acting jointly or in the absence of the Chair of the Audit Committee, by any two directors acting jointly.

Where the power of veto has been exercised this will be immediately communicated in writing to the individual or group affected.

4 EXEMPTIONS

Requests for exemption from the requirements of these procedures should be directed in writing to the Company Secretary. Exemptions will only be granted in Exceptional Circumstances and only where:

- there is no legal risk of insider trading and no risk of the appearance of insider trading;
- trading is not prohibited by virtue of Section 3 of these procedures; and
- person requesting the exemption has certified, in such form as is required, that they are not in possession of inside information regarding PE1.

Exemptions will be considered by the PIML Chairman and Company Secretary (or by their alternates as set out in "Approval of Trades" in Section 2 of these procedures).

5 FURTHER DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

Trading in PE1 securities in a personal capacity may result in disclosure obligations to regulators. These include notification to the ASX of:

- any trading in PE1's securities by PIML directors (within five business days of the trade);
- changes to substantial unitholdings as a result of trading by directors and executive officers in a personal capacity.

The Company Secretary will attend to any such disclosures.

ATTACHMENT B: SUMMARY OF LEGAL PROHIBITIONS ON INSIDER TRADING

This description of the legal prohibition on insider trading is provided for information purposes only and is not intended as legal advice and is not to be relied upon as such. Directors and employees are responsible for ensuring their actions comply with relevant legal and regulatory requirements.

Part 7.10 (Division 3) of the Corporations Act, 2001 ('Act') regulates the prohibition on insider trading. Generally, insider trading refers to trading of financial products that can be traded on a financial market, based on price sensitive information that is not generally available.

1 INFORMATION

Information is defined in Section 1042A of the Act. It may be obtained verbally or in writing.

Information includes:

- matters of supposition and other matters that are insufficiently definite to warrant being made known to the public (that is, inferences or conclusions drawn from potential outcomes); and
- matters relating to the intentions, or likely intentions of a person.

Examples include:

- merger and takeover discussions;
- possible profit warnings;
- possible departure of key personnel.

2 INFORMATION WHICH IS NOT GENERALLY AVAILABLE

Section 1042C of the Act provides that information is generally available when:

- it consists of a readily observable matter; or
- it has been made known in a manner that would, or would be likely to, bring it to the attention of persons who commonly invest in financial products whose price might be affected by the information (and deductions, conclusions or inferences made or drawn as a result of such), and since it has been made known, a reasonable period for it to be disseminated among such persons has elapsed.

Accordingly, information will be not generally available where it does not satisfy either of the above criteria. Employees are likely to have access to information that is not generally available during the course of their employment.

Examples include:

- the financial performance of the Fund;
- changes in the capital structure of the Fund, including proposals to raise additional equity or borrowings;
- changes to the board of directors of the Responsible Entity or significant changes in key personnel; or
- removal or replacement of the Investment Manager.

3 PRICE SENSITIVE

Information is price sensitive if a reasonable person would expect the information to have a 'material effect' on the price or value of the financial product. Under Section 1042D of the Act, this will be the case if the information would, or would be likely to, influence people who commonly acquire financial products in deciding whether or not to subscribe for, buy or sell the financial product.

4 PROHIBITED CONDUCT

BY A PERSON IN POSSESSION OF PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Directors or employees who possess price sensitive information in relation to financial products that is not generally available must not:

- subscribe for, purchase or sell (or agree to subscribe for, purchase or sell) those financial products;
- procure another person to do so; or
- directly or indirectly, communicate the information or cause the information to be communicated to another person if the employee knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the other person would or would be likely to:
- subscribe for, purchase or sell, or enter into an agreement to subscribe for, purchase or sell, any such financial products; or
- procure a third person to subscribe for, purchase or sell, or to enter into an agreement to subscribe for, purchase or sell, any such financial products
